

Spectacular house in idyllic area of Barcelona Costa

Ref: PH100381

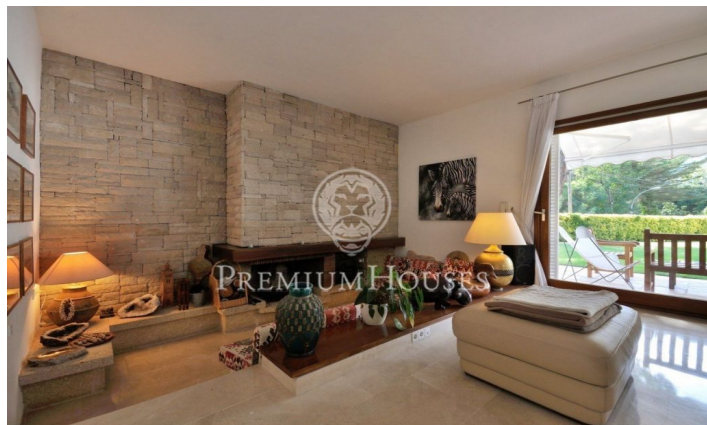

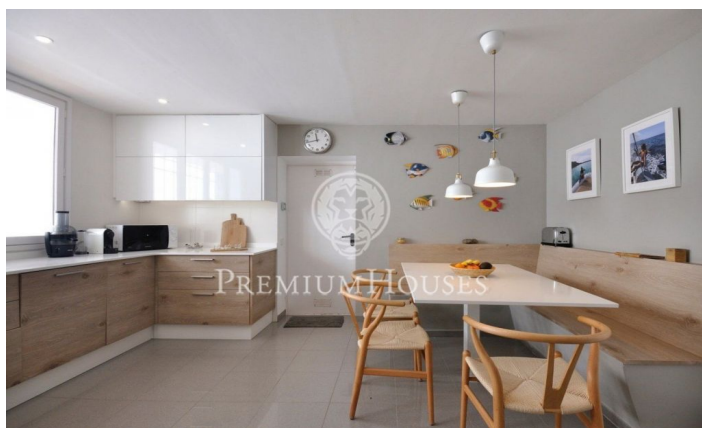

Argentona / Barcelona Costa Norte

This spectacular house is located in an idyllic area of Argentona. Surrounded by vegetation and very close to the best beaches of the Maresme. The house has been built with the best qualities, very comfortable, given that practically all the construction is on the ground floor, where the large living room with a spectacular fireplace has been located, and direct access to the large porch, which leads directly to the spectacular pool. On the same floor there are three large double bedrooms with direct access to the garden, where a large bathroom serves this area. Next to the large living room there is a fantastic kitchen, very spacious with informal dining area and then we find the service area. Through some beautiful stairs we access the first floor, in which we open a large multipurpose room, in which the owners have now arranged a large study and office area for the whole family; on the same floor we find a large bedroom with its bathroom, currently dedicated to the guest area; at the other end we have the master suite, very large, with its large bathroom and an important dressing room and direct access to a solarium terrace. We also have available a garage for two large cars. The house is surrounded by a beautiful garden where we find the large pool. We are very well connect...
