Stately Village House in Ferran

Ref: PHS101358

Tarragona / Tarragona - Costa Dorada

We are pleased to present this unique 18th-century manor house located in Ferran, a quiet hamlet in Tarragona. A property of great architectural value that preserves the character and essence of period architecture. The home is spread over three floors plus a tower. The ground floor opens onto a spacious entry hall with access to the garden, which features several outbuildings offering a wide range of potential uses. The first and second floors comprise a total of 17 rooms and 3 bathrooms, offering an exceptional layout that can be adapted as a large family home, a two-family residence, a boutique hotel, a rural retreat, or any other project requiring spacious areas and character. The top floor culminates in a tower with views of the sea. The property retains numerous original features, reinforcing the home's historic and stately character. Ferran is a small village (60 residents) in the municipality of Tarragona, located near the mouth of the Gaià River and just a few kilometers from Altafulla and its coastline. It offers the tranquility of a small village without sacrificing proximity to all amenities and excellent connections to Tarragona and Barcelona.
