

A wonderful reflection of Versailles in Tiana

Ref: PH100579

Tiana / Maresme/Barcelona Costa Norte

We are facing a wonderful neoclassical house built in 1850 and completely renovated for four years, with completion in 2014. The gardens remind us of Versailles, very well maintained, with special mention to those in front of the main entrance that have a very beautiful fountain and water area. In all areas of the garden we find balustrades and figures that move us to a romantic past. The property has a private pool, another beautiful garden at the back of the house, with a porch, and a space next to the back door for entry of guest vehicles and parking. The facade of the house is ahead of the two lateral bodies with a front topped by figures and the name of the house, MATITO, which refers to the names of their owners, which gives it a very special and unique character. We access the house through the main door that is preceded by stairs that accompany it on both sides, the door is sliding glass, and gives way to a beautiful hall and then a spectacular distributor, with frescoes on its walls and a dome with natural light and from which a very beautiful lamp hangs in the center of the room. On both sides we have rooms on the floor. We highlight the main suite, with fireplace and access to private terrace, a nice bathroom, dressing room and reading room also with fireplace. On ...
