

Charming cottage in Torredembarra

Ref: PHS101134

Torredembarra / Tarragona - Costa Dorada

In the neighborhood of Clarà in Torredembarra we find this small house with lots of charm. The house is surrounded by a small plot that offers some privacy. The house is distributed on one floor that includes living-dining room, kitchen and bathroom, a double bedroom and a single bedroom. Clarà is one of the quietest and most pleasant neighborhoods of Torredembarra, ideal for those looking for a residential environment close to the sea. With quiet streets and a family atmosphere, it offers quality of life without giving up services. It is located just 10 minutes walk from the center of Torredembarra and about 15 minutes from the beach. Torredembarra, in the heart of the Costa Dorada, is a town with Mediterranean charm and medieval historical remains such as the Icard Castle and the church of Sant Pere Apòstol. Its historic center, with cobbled streets and traditional architecture is very interesting and invites you to stroll and discover its rich history. In addition, it has wide beaches and an excellent connection with Barcelona and Tarragona, making it an ideal option to live, invest or enjoy a vacation.
